Deen Fire,

My norms is Corince and I am II years old. I had many opinions on parts of the story. I will be horest and part certain parts of the story.

quotes. There were quite a few instances where anotes used . They showed different trings adding up to the factor of finding your voice. One quote was tryranny of the majority. I like how the story explains the reason quotes so you understand how it relates to the story.

Next, I liked they use of certain characters. It has different characters with distaurn High, there are girls who are enthisiastic and betermined there is Mr. Clarke who is a halping teacher with good advice. Jeremy, who learns to speak up and find his voice. It shows all the personalities and points of view which is good.

One more thing is the way the characters ask anest one the numbers might a se

The characters ask like the reader. Some confused at some points like the reader. Some one prespond though and they help you curter stand.

I really hope you take my cooks and opinions and use them for fature strokes. Thank you for helping the understand finding your voice and free tom of speech.

Givening